

NANTCLWYD Y DRE

Historic house and gardens

Tinkle the ivories, become a Victorian chef, put on some period finery, and take a turn in the tranquil gardens with vintage teacup in hand! At Nantclwyd y Dre you are invited to make yourself at home in history and experience this higgledy-piggledy timber-framed townhouse as the families who lived here did.

From medieval to modern, and parlour to lawn games, discover family life of times past and learn about some rare residents that are still in occupation!

PLAS NEWYDD

Home of the 'Ladies of Llangollen'

Lady Eleanor Butler and Miss Sarah Ponsonby captured the imagination of Regency society when they ran away and set up home together in Wales.

Visit their incredible Gothicised cottage, filled with elaborate oak carving and projecting stained glass, to discover their story. Learn about their famous visitors, wander the ladies' favourite riverside walk, and enjoy lunch or a homemade cake in the tearooms.

HISTORIC DENBIGHSHIRE

Discover a higgledy-piggledy timber-framed townhouse, a unique Victorian prison experience, a treasure trove of seaside life, and the home of the Ladies of Llangollen...
